As the centrepiece of your bathroom, a basin from the Bezzoni Concrete Collection is the ultimate statement in chic and artistic design. By nature, concrete is not a uniform material and therefore its appearance will always have aesthetic variations of colour, shade, pattern and size. These “character markings” and discolourations will become more pronounced and increase in number as the basin ages over time. The rustic, earthy feel and look of these basins are just how Mother Nature intended. Each basin is unique and exquisite.
